

WELCOME TO THE SPILL OPEN

The following notes have been prepared to help you complete your SPILL OPEN application. For additional information please also read the SPILL OPEN Toolkit, which can be downloaded for free, along with a Word document of the online form, plus large text and audio format versions at

<http://www.spillfestival.com>

We advise you work on your application in Word or a similar format, then transfer answers into the online form, as unfortunately it is not possible to save your form and continue at a later date. Exiting halfway through the form will mean you lose any entered data. So cut-and-paste is definitely your friend here.

FIRST OFF, ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

- The SPILL OPEN is aimed at early makers and artists whose practices may have been overlooked, regardless of age, working in between or across forms, and with something meaningful to say.
- Applicants can be based anywhere.
- No formal qualifications are needed to apply for the SPILL OPEN.
